WHY GRAFTED EVERGREENS? When a choice evergreen is developed by selection or breeding, its characteristics, including color, shape, habit of growth and hardiness, can be carried to its offspring by grafting. It is almost impossible to get two seedling Junipers alike because of seedling variation. Grafted evergreens are a little more in cost, but are well worth the difference.

The evergreens listed on this page are large, well-furnished, balled and burlapped specimens; not light, bare-rooted plants. When shipped to you, they are crated or basketed for added protection. Complete instructions for planting and care come with each order.

RED CEDAR

the all-purpose evergreen

The RED CEDAR or VIRGINIANA JUNIPER is one of the most useful and the hardiest of evergreens for the Great Plains Region. It has fine-textured foliage of bright green color which turns reddish-bronze in the winter. We can furnish sheared, balled and burlapped specimens for foundation plantings and for yard and park work. We can also furnish small trees either potted, balled and burlapped or bare-root for windbreaks, shelterbelts or hedges.

Specimen Red Cedar

FOR GENERAL LANDSCAPE USE—

RED CEDAR may be kept small or any desired SHAPE or SIZE by shearing, which requires only a few minutes a year. This shearing makes them more dense and compact. Sheared specimens are used extensively as accent points in foundation plantings and landscapes, to frame entrances, etc. BALLED AND BURLAPPED SPECIMENS, Not Prepaid.

SILVER CEDAR

The Colorado Silver Juniper

The Colorado Silver Cedar (Scopulorum Juniper) is very similar in habit of growth to the Red Cedar, except the texture of the foliage is finer and the color is a silvery green. It also can be sheared into dense, compact specimens like the Red Cedar. The sheared specimens listed and pictured vary somewhat in color and texture of foliage because they have been grown from seed. Fancy named and grafted varieties, such as Chandlers, Pathfinder and Kansas Silver (listed on page 13), were developed from the Colorado Silver Cedar but since they are grafted, each variety is uniform in color and matched specimens are possible. However, the specimens listed below make excellent foundation and landscape trees. BALLED AND BURLAPPED SHEARED SPECIMENS, not prepaid.

Moraine Locust

Patent No. 836. At last, a really CLEAN tree. In addition to being thornless, it bears only male flowers, thus preventing the formation of the unsightly brown seed pods that fall off in autumn and clutter up the lawn. The fact that it does not produce seed pods contributes to its having better foliage because the strength is not used up in producing fruit, consequently the foliage is more luxuriant and holds or much longer in the fall. Beautiful dark green foliage, clean, strong, dark-colored branches, stately shape, rapid-growing, long-lived, drought and heat resistant, will grow anywhere and no seed to fall or clean up. What else could you ask for? Our supply is limited. Not prepaid.

SHADE AND ORNAMENTAL TREES

American Elm

We like to think of this tree as typically "American." Stately, upright growing, yet spreading, hardy and long-lived. While it is not fast growing, if given good care, it will develop into a large tree in just a few years. It is native of Kansas and deserves to be planted more than it is. The American Elm is valuable for street, yard, park, farm and wood-lot planting. Not affected by freezes. Not Prepaid.

Chinese Elm

Because of its beauty, its extremely rapid growth, its resistance to disease and insects as well as heat and drought, the Chinese Elm has become popular. Under ordinary conditions, it grows 5 feet a year; in just a few years it becomes an excellent shade tree. It is valuable for those parts of our country where most other trees will not thrive where it is hot, dry or in alkali soil. In that part of the country where Maples, American Elm or the Honeylocust are grown, we recommend the planting of Chinese Elm only for quick shade. There are many homes which would be more attractive and more comfortable if some of these quick growing Chinese Elm were planted. (See page 44 for seedlings). Not prepaid.

Farm buildings built from this lumber 40 years ago are still standing and in good condition, the lumber having never warped or rotted. In some cases, the lumber was never painted. The lumber can be planed with or against the grain without chipping. In addition to being an excellent lumber tree, it makes a good long-lived shade tree, being more resistant to wind-damage than the common Cottonwood. You can make a nice profit from the waste land on your farm with the Lydick Cottonwood. Very hardy and easy to grow. Not prepaid.

LAWN SEEDS AND GRASSES

the new U-3 GRASS

U-3 GRASS, developed by the United States Department of Agriculture, is something new and different in creeping grasses. In fact, it still bears its experimental number, U-3, instead of a name. U-3 is a Bermuda grass similar to Velvet grass in texture but far superior in color and every other respect.

The color of U-3 GRASS is a dark, rich, satisfying green lasting longer into the cold winter weather and appearing earlier in the spring than Velvet grass and common Bermuda. Mowing is not a problem with the low-creeping growth habit and fine texture of U-3 GRASS. Its thick, carpet-like turf eases the crabgrass and weed control problem so common to lawns in this area.

U-3 GRASS is sold by the square foot of sod. When planted according to instructions (furnished with each order), each square foot of sod will plant from 20 to 50 square feet of lawn area. Between June 1st and August 1st is the best time to plant. It should not be planted in the fall or before May 15th in the spring. Our supply is very limited. Order yours early to be sure it will be shipped at the proper time. CAUTION: U-3 GRASS does not produce seed. It can be started only from the sod or roots. We recommend U-3 GRASS for the sunny lawn area only.

Meyer Z-52 Zoysia

BUILD A PERMANENT LAWN THAT CRABGRASS AND WEEDS CAN'T RUIN . . . THAT KEEPS ITS RICH GREEN COLOR THROUGH HOT, DRY WEATHER.

The new, superior lawn grass, Meyer Z-52 Zoysia, makes a permanent lawn with a dense turf that chokes out crabgrass and weeds. It grows best in hottest weather, gives you a beautiful, deep green lawn when you want it most, during the hot summer months when usual grasses wilt and burn out. Meyer Z-52 Zoysia will not grow in dense shade; and it loses its color after heavy frost, regaining it again in the spring. It is easily overseeded with Merion Bluegrass for winter color.

Meyer Z-52 Zoysia is furnished as 1 3/4 inch plugs of sod. These plugs should be set out on 12 to 18 inch centers. Between June 1st and August 1st is the best time to plant. It should not be planted in the fall or before May 15th. If planted at the proper time, it will become established and start to spread this year and will cover completely next spring and summer.

Meyer Z-52 Zoysia cannot be grown from seed. It must be set out as actual plugs of sod. Simple planting instructions accompany each shipment.
